

2004 CIS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP OUTLOOK BISHOP'S UNIVERSITY GAITERS

Head Coach: Rod Gilpin (10th season with team)

Regular season record: 12-4 (19-8 overall)

Regular season ranking: 1 in Quebec, ranked No. 8 in national coaches poll

Playoff record: 2-0 (Final: 61-52 over Laval, Semi-Final 65-50 over McGill)

Playoff ranking: 1

CIS Championship appearances: 77-78, 78-79, 79-80, 81-82, 82-83, 83-84, 89-90, 90-91

CIS Titles: 2 (82-83, 83-84)

2003-04 Individual Stats leaders:

Points per game: Anouk Boulanger 12.4 (Total 199)

Rebounds per game: Jessica Koury 4.5 (Total 81)

Steals: France Lanoie 46

Assists: France Lanoie 53

Shooting percentage: Emilie Crofton .469

Conference award winners:

Coach of the Year QUBL Rod Gilpin

Defensive Player of the Year France Lanoie

Conference All-Stars:

First Team: Anouk Boulanger

Second Team: Amelie Rousseau, France Lanoie

GAITERS KEY FACTS

Six different players have scored 20 points in a game at least once this season.

Eight players have scored at least 17 points in a game at least once this season.

All 12 players on roster have hit a three-pointer at least once this season.

Outside shooting team, top three CIS in three point field goal percentage all Bishop's Lady Gaiters": 1. Carly Clark 51.85, 2. Anouk Boulanger 51.67, 3. Amelie Rousseau: 49.06.

Key addition this season: Emilie Crofton rookie from San Jose, California, plays significant minutes, started a number of games for team throughout season, tough inside player who can shoot jump shot and three when needed.

4-1 against Laval this season including playoffs.

This is the 20th anniversary of the Lady Gaiters last national championship victory. The location of the championships that year: Winnipeg. Can history repeat itself?