Ryerson University Administrative Infraction (Athletic Financial Awards)

In accordance with Section 90.40 – Conduct and Enforcement: Complaints, Investigation and Discipline Policy of the 2007 Canadian Interuniversity Sport (CIS) Policies and Procedures, I have considered a self-disclosure submitted by Karen Hood-Deshon, Acting Manager of Interuniversity Sport, Ryerson University. The self-disclosure details a breach of CIS Regulation 50.10.3.1.5 – Total Value of AFA Restrictions, specifically with respect to the provision of an AFA that was more than the value of tuition and compulsory fees of one student-athlete in academic year 2006-07. The self-disclosure also detailed breaches of two specific OUA Regulations, which are not governed by CIS Policy and have already been shared with the OUA for its consideration.

Upon reviewing the Record of this matter, I have determined that there are grounds for a formal charge. It is my view that Ryerson University breached CIS regulations as noted above.

Pursuant to Policy 90.40.4.12, I consider the breach to be an inadvertent administrative infraction that is not regularly and consistently occurring at the institution. I am satisfied that the current self-disclosure is such that it does not warrant a discipline hearing otherwise specified to take place pursuant to Policy 90.40.5.

Further, it is my opinion that the severity of the infraction, specifically a $49 AFA overpayment, is relatively minor. I also believe, upon review of the Record, that there is reasonable assurance that such an infraction will not be repeated at Ryerson University.

In consideration of the above, Ryerson University is fined $250 for the administrative errors that led to the breach of CIS regulations, plus $150 in costs to resolve this matter.

The above statements and determinations are made without prejudice and subject to change should subsequently discovered facts or evidence suggest otherwise.
